

died February 21, 1953. Livingston died January 20, 1932. Their children were: Livingston Clegg, Mary Ann, Francis Clayton, Juventa (Mrs. Charles Hamblin) and Walter.

Livingston was the fifth child in the family. He sailed from Liverpool, England, for New York with his mother, brothers and sisters on the "Tapscott," on May 14, 1862. Arriving at New York, they left at once by train for the Missouri River, where they joined the Captain Homer Duncan company. The family reached Heber Valley on September 22, 1862. Here they rejoined Robert Montgomery, husband and father of the group.

Livingston shared all the early experiences of pioneer times. He was especially gifted as a mimic, reader and singer. He and William Harvey, also a singer, served as a source of entertainment for most public and social gatherings. "Leave," as he was called, was a talented writer and contributed poems and song lyrics on many festive occasions.

Livingston filled a mission to the Northern States for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He was a member of the Wasatch Stake High Council.

Amelia Ann Clegg Montgomery was active in Church and civic organizations. She was the first president of Heber Third Ward Primary and later was president of the Mutual. She was a charter member of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers.

JOHN LOURY MONTGOMERY

John Loury Montgomery was born on August 30, 1868, at Heber City, to John Horrocks and Mary Rogers Montgomery.

He married Sarah Ellen Moulton on June 28, 1897. At the age of 12 he began to work hard, mostly assisting in logging operations with older men. As a young man, he worked at the Ontario Tunnel at Park City. After his marriage he moved to Heber, where he farmed and raised cattle. He was water master for the North Field Irrigation Company for 30 years. In 1912 his right leg was mangled in a hay bailer, causing him great suffering. Years later it had to be amputated below the knee. He was Heber City night watchman four years. Having lost his first wife in 1923, he married Annie Webster on June 11, 1928. One son, Clyde, was born to them. He died in his sleep December 14, 1942, and was buried in Heber City Cemetery.
